WHAT'S NEW WITH THE MONARCHS

FINALS PREVIEW?

The two best teams in the American Association meet in Milwaukee this week. Both the Monarchs and the Milkmen have sizeable leads in their respective divisions.

"We definitely know they're a good team, so that means we need to come out firing on all cylinders, like we have been," Monarchs infielder Justin Wylie said Sunday. "Just continue to put the ball in play and make things happen."

This is the last of two series between the Monarchs and Milkmen in the 2023 regular season. The Monarchs took two out of three from Milwaukee in their only series so far this year (May 22-24).

WYLIE WINS WEEKLY HONOR

Justin Wylie's unstoppable stretch for the Kansas City Monarchs has earned him some league recognition. Wylie was named the American Association's Pointstreak Batter of the Week for the week ending August 6, the league announced Monday. Wylie smashed four home runs and three doubles in his six games this week, all at home against the Winnipeg Goldeyes. He drove in eight runs and scored 10.

NEW FACES

Two new pitchers made their Monarchs debut over the past week. Former major leaguer Bubby Rossman made his first appearance with Kansas City Tuesday night. Rossman, 31, made his big-league debut with the Phillies in 2022. He pitched with Team Israel in the World Baseball Classic earlier this year. The Monarchs now feature eight former major leaguers on their active roster, a season high.

Trey Cobb, a sidearming right-hander, debuted with the Monarchs Thursday. A former Mets and Phillies prospect, Cobb has pitched as high as Triple-A in his affiliated career.

THIS DAY IN Monarchs HISTORY

On this day in 1943, the Monarchs played their most-attended game of the season. They traveled to New York to take on the New York Cubans from the original Yankee Stadium in the Bronx. 34,000 people turned out to watch Satchel Paige and the Monarchs take on the Cubans in an interleague exhibition game.

While the hype was no doubt immense, the game sadly did not go Kansas City's way. Paige allowed four runs in the first inning and was relieved by Jack Matchett after three frames. The Monarchs rallied to make it a 5-4 game after five, but three eighth-inning runs from the Cubans sealed the eventual 8-5 victory.

Herb Souell went 3-for-4 with a triple for Kansas City in the defeat. Jessie Williams and Willard Brown each went 2-for-5.

The '43 Monarchs finished the year with a league-best 44-27-1 record, but did not play for a league title as they lost both the first-half and second-half pennants.
